

Love Golf? Join our Club!

Muir of Ord Golf Club is situated in the heart of the Highlands and near the start of the now famous North Coast 500 route. It has some wonderful scenery and is an 18-hole heathland course which provides an enjoyable test for golfers of all abilities. It is a place where wildlife can be seen most days including beautiful Red Kites which soar majestically overhead.

Our signature 12th hole is a challenge for the best of golfers and from the tee provides a wonderful view of Ben Wyvis.

Alongside the 12th tee sits the 13th green resting on land we can trace back to the Neolithic Age of 2000-2500 years BC. Muir of Ord Golf Club has been at the centre of community life since its inception in 1875, making it one of the oldest Clubs in the North of Scotland and we pride ourselves on the family-friendly atmosphere and environment to be found here. Don't just take our word for it...come and pay us a visit to find out more.

"I always look forward to playing at Muir of Ord G.C, the course is set up well for all golfers. The breathtaking, scenic views of the surrounding area & hills are not to be missed.

Add to this the friendly, family atmosphere back in the clubhouse which ensures why I'm always keen to return.

"My regular game at "The Muir" is the high point of the week. Easy to book, a wonderful course, good company and with a tasty snack and a beer to follow. I'd recommend this friendly club to all ages - it has something for everyone at a very reasonable cost."

Ian D. Morrison

"Hi everyone, I'm Russell Knox, member and winner on the PGA Tour. I was born in Inverness, Scotland and started playing golf there as a young boy. I played at all the courses in the area including Muir of Ord.

Although a relatively short course at just over 5500 yards, it holds many challenges both for the beginner and the more experienced golfer. I particularly liked the challenge of the Par 3 signature 12th hole at around 200 yards - tight off the medal tee with many pitfalls to overcome if you hit a poor shot!

I always enjoyed the friendly and welcoming atmosphere at the Club. With the well maintained fairways and greens and wonderful Scottish Highlands scenery I would recommend it to anyone visiting the area and seeking to play golf. It is part of the "James Braid Highland Golf Trail" and truly a "hidden gem".

Russell Knox, PGA Tour
